

SHELTON STATE

The Community's College

Shelton State is people - people who care.

Shelton State Community College Foundation

What is the Shelton State Foundation?

The Shelton State Community College Foundation is a not-for-profit foundation organized under the law of Alabama. It is fiscally and organizationally separate from the College.

Its purpose is to receive tax deductible private gifts, bequests, and donations, and to account for, manage and help appreciate monies or property submitted to the Foundation.

Funds for the Foundation are distributed for the advancement of the College and encouragement of academic excellence in our faculty and students. Foundation activities and support include, but are not limited to:

- * Financial aid for students
- * Recognition of outstanding scholarship and leadership
- * Management and investment of funds
- * Building and renovation of physical facilities
- * Awards and special achievement
- * Procurement of special equipment
- * Support of the College library
- * Planning for special College activities and programs

Who Serves on the Foundation?

The Foundation is composed of a Board of Directors made up of individuals selected from Shelton's service area. These people represent positive leadership and community influence and have expressed an interest and desire to use this influence on behalf of the College through the Foundation.

The Foundation is prepared to support programs and activities of the College, which promote College Objectives.